REPORTS BIG GAIN IN NEW LONDON BUILDING

Ruilding Inspector Benjamin R. Linicus of New London, in his annual report which was submitted recently to City Menager Barlow, shows that building operations during the year ending in that city Sept. 20, were in value mearly triple the amount expended the previous year. The total value this year was $857.175, as compared to $220,250 for the year ending Sept. 30, 1921.

There were almost a third more industrial buildings erected and more than twice at many dwelling houses, while the number of garager can be 101 this year to 103 last year. The figures are as follows:

66 additions, alterations, etc. . 90,700

There have also been fire escapes and fire exits installed on or in $1 buildings.
